

Simon Nelson, FCIA, FSA

Principal
Eckler Ltd.
Toronto, Ontario

Simon Nelson is a consulting actuary and principal with over 20 years of consulting experience. Nelson currently co-leads Eckler's pension actuarial practice. He is an expert on complex pension issues, advising clients on regulatory matters, restructuring activities, union negotiations, plan design projects, funding and accounting matters. Nelson's clients have included a broad array of plan sponsors, including large corporations, public-sector organizations, multi-employer pension plans and not-for-profit organizations. Before joining Eckler in 2013, he worked for 15 years at another major consulting firm. He has been heavily involved in the actuarial profession and has been a regular speaker at actuarial conferences. Nelson is a current member of the Actuarial Standards Board and the Canadian Institute of Actuaries' Pension Advisory Committee, a past chair of the CIA Committee on Pension Plan Financial Reporting, and a member of several Canadian Institute of Actuaries Task Forces and Designated Groups. In addition, he is a current member of FSRA's DB SEPP Stakeholder Advisory Committee and the National Policy Committee of the Association of Canadian Pension Management (ACPM). Nelson earned a bachelor of science (honours) degree in mathematical statistics from the University of Toronto. He is a Fellow of the Society of Actuaries (FSA) and a Fellow of the Canadian Institute of Actuaries (FCIA).
