

Susan L. Nickerson

Partner and Head of the Pensions,
Benefits & Executive Compensation Group
McCarthy Tétrault LLP
Toronto, Ontario

Susan Nickerson is a partner and Head of McCarthy Tétrault's Pensions, Benefits, & Executive Compensation Group based in the Toronto office. Recognized as a leading pension and benefits lawyer, Susan's practice focuses on all areas of pension and benefits law and governance. An active member of the pension community, Susan is a frequent speaker and moderator on emerging industry issues and has a particular interest in policy development on a provincial and national level. She is past Chair of the Board of the Association of Canadian Pension Management (ACPM). In 2016, Susan was the first recipient of the ACPM Don Ireland Award in recognition of outstanding volunteerism in the field of pensions and benefits law and governance.