

Suni Osborn

Senior Global Benefits Analyst
Silicon Labs
Boulder, Colorado

Suni Osborn is a senior global benefits analyst who has managed and administered employee benefit plans for over 15,000 employees in over 39 different countries. She has ten years of multifaceted HR experience working with small startups to Fortune companies. Osborn excels at developing and implementing global benefit strategies from scratch including plan enhancements, entity harmonization and broker management. She has her Professional in Human Resources® (PHR®) credentials and recently received her Certificate in Global Benefits Management. Osborn holds a bachelor's degree in hospitality management and business from Colorado State University.