

Dean Papas, M.B.A.

Vice President

Allianz Global Investors Management Partners
San Diego, California

Mr. Papas is an institutional marketing executive at Allianz Global Investors Management Partners, which represents NFJ Investments, Nicholas-Applegate Capital Management and Oppenheimer Capital. He is responsible for new business development for U.S. and Canadian corporate, endowment and foundation plans. Prior to joining the firm in 2006, Mr. Papas was a vice president of institutional sales with BNY Brokerage, and a director of national accounts with Thomson Financial/Carson. He began his career in the trust division of Putnam Investments. Mr. Papas holds a bachelor of science degree in financial management from Clemson University and an M.B.A. degree from Duke University's Fuqua School of Business. He is registered with the NASD and holds both the Series 7 and Series 66 licenses.