

Edward Patchett, CFA

Managing Director, Client Group
GCM Grosvenor
Washington, D.C.

Mr. Patchett shares responsibility for business development, client service and consultant relations. He is located in the Washington D.C. office. Prior to joining GCM Grosvenor, he worked as a Senior Vice President and Area Director at Gallagher Fiduciary Advisors, where he managed the firm's investment consulting practice and provided strategic investment guidance and recommendations to clients. Previously, he was a Consulting Associate at Wilshire Associates, where he was dedicated to serving one of the firm's largest clients, and an Investment Banking Associate at Capital Resources Group. Mr. Patchett began his career at the National Association of Securities Dealers, now known as Financial Industry Regulatory Authority. Mr. Patchett received his Bachelor of Science in Business and Marketing from Ferris State University and his Master of Science in Finance from Johns Hopkins University. He holds the Chartered Financial Analyst® designation and is a member of the CFA Society of Washington, D.C. Mr. Patchett serves on the Board of Directors of Commonwealth Community Trust (CCT) a non-profit organization that administers pooled special needs trusts for clients with special needs. He's also a member of CCT's finance and investment committee.