

Brigitte Patenaude

Senior Vice-President, Cyber Insurance Practice
Aon
Montréal, Québec

Brigitte Patenaude is a senior vice president within Aon's National Cyber and Privacy Broking team. Based in Montréal, she is responsible for negotiating and broking favorable cyber insurance programs for Aon's large- to mid-size corporations in various industries. Brigitte is also a resource for her colleagues in helping organizations better understand their cyber risk exposures as well as educate them on cyber insurance concepts. Prior to joining Aon in 2000, she served as the British Columbia personal lines manager at Western Union, which is now known as Intact Insurance. Brigitte first began working in the industry in 1991. She has developed expertise with multi-national placements and works in collaboration with various Aon offices on a global basis. During Brigitte's many years at Aon, she has also been a member of the FSG team and has developed expertise with financial lines products such as Directors and Officers, Fiduciary and Employment Practices Liability insurance. Prior to joining the cyber team, Brigitte was the crime product leader for Aon FSG Canada. She earned a bachelor of commerce degree from Hautes Études Commerciales (HEC) and is a Registered Personal and Commercial Damage Insurance Broker in Québec.
