

Anthony Pepe, CPA, M.T.

Manager

Schultheis & Panettieri, LLP

Hauppauge, New York

Anthony Pepe is a manager at Schultheis & Panettieri, LLP, one of the largest accounting firms in the northeastern United States, specializing in multiemployer benefit plans and their related labor unions. His role at Schultheis & Panettieri is multi-faceted, with Anthony spending approximately half his time on unrelated business income tax matters for large employee benefit plan clients, and the other half spent managing the audits of employee benefit plans and labor organizations. He manages his firm's continuing professional education and often speaks at firm seminars. A member of the AICPA and NYSSCPA, he graduated from University of Pittsburgh in 2014 with a bachelor's degree in accounting and, after obtaining his CPA license, graduated from University of Denver in 2020 with a master's degree in taxation. When not working, he enjoys playing tennis and spending time with his husband.
