

Daniel Perricone, CFA, FCIA, FSA

Senior Director,
Institutional Investments and Business Development
WTW
Montréal, Québec

Daniel Perricone is a Senior Director in WTW's Investments business based in Montréal. He is responsible for institutional business development across Eastern Canada, including Québec and the Atlantic provinces. Daniel supports pension plans, foundations, endowments, insurers and not-for-profit organizations in evaluating and implementing WTW's investment solutions and capabilities. He advises retirement plan sponsors and other institutional investors on investment governance, asset allocation, investment policy development, portfolio construction, and investment manager selection and oversight.

Over his career with WTW, Daniel has held roles within both the Retirement Actuarial and Investments practices. Prior to focusing on investment consulting, he performed actuarial and financial valuations for several of Canada's largest public- and private-sector pension plans, providing him with a unique perspective on the intersection of pension funding, risk management and investment strategy.

Daniel holds a bachelor of science degree in actuarial mathematics and finance from Concordia University. He is a Fellow of the Canadian Institute of Actuaries (FCIA), a Fellow of the Society of Actuaries (FSA) and a CFA Charterholder.
