

Nicholas J. Petrucelli

Managing Director, Asset Allocation Portfolio Manager
Wellington Management Company, LLP
Boston, Massachusetts

As a portfolio manager, Nick is responsible for developing and managing multi-asset opportunistic and inflation-hedging portfolios. Nick's investment philosophy is contrarian in nature and combines the discipline of systematic frameworks with long-term thematic research and fundamental insights from across Wellington's investment platform. In addition, Nick has a background in strategic asset allocation and is the author of numerous research papers on portfolio construction and thematic/macro investment opportunities. Prior to joining Wellington Management, Nick worked as an analyst in the Defined Contribution Practice at NEPC. Nick earned his master's degree in finance, with distinction, from London Business School and his B.A. degree in economics from Bates College.
