

Michel Piette, CFA

Senior Capability Specialist, Private Markets
Fiera Capital Corporation
Montréal, Québec

Michel Piette is a senior capability specialist, private markets on the institutional markets team, and he is responsible for business development for the Fiera Comox strategies. Michel has over 20 years of industry experience. Prior experiences include various positions as analyst and portfolio manager within investment management firms in the United Kingdom. Additionally, he held various business development roles within Deutsche Bank AG in London (UK). Prior to joining Fiera Capital, Michel was in charge of business development for Mercer's outsourced chief investment officer and alternatives solutions in Montréal. Michel graduated from Université Laval with a bachelor of business administration (BBA) degree, majoring in finance. He also holds the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) designation.