

John Prezioso

Partner

Brown Mills Klinck Prezioso LLP

Toronto, Ontario

John Prezioso is a partner with Brown Mills Klinck Prezioso LLP. He advises plan administrators in the private, public and nonprofit sectors on compliance, administration and governance issues relating to their pension plans and employee group benefits plans, as well as issues relating to pension plan investment, derisking of defined benefit pension plans and decumulation issues in the defined contribution context. Prezioso has taught the Pension Law course at Queen's University Faculty of Law and is an instructor for Osgoode PD's Certificate in Pension Law course (York University in Ontario, Canada).