

Gene H. Price

Administrator Consultant
Southwest Carpenter Funds Administrative Office
Los Angeles, California

Gene H. Price has worked at the executive level with various carpenter funds for more than 45 years. He is currently engaged with the Southwest Carpenter Funds as a mentor. Over his career, Price's responsibilities included administration and operation of various active and retiree health and welfare plans, defined benefit and defined contribution pension plans, apprenticeship and training funds, and vacation and holiday benefits. He currently serves as Past President of the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans Board of Directors and is a member of the Executive Committee, Strategic Initiative Steering Committee, and is the Chair of the Mental Health and Addictions Expert Panel. He is a former member of the Educational Program and Administrators Committees. Price has also served as Chair of the Health Care Management and Coalition Committee and was the Executive Committee Liaison on the Financial Review Committee and on the Apprenticeship, Training and Education Committee. He holds a bachelor of arts degree in business administration from St. Mary's College in Moraga, California.