

Dr. Sandra Primiano, Ph.D., Psy.D.

Vice President, Stay at Work Services
Homewood Health
Montreal, Quebec

Dr. Sandra Primiano, vice president of Stay at Work Services, oversees EFAP and provides leadership to First Call Care, Depression Care and Trauma Care, Crisis Management Services, Organizational Wellness and the Clinics/Counselling Centres. In this role, she collaborates with clinical leaders across the organization to implement clinical processes and ensure service quality and the clinical effectiveness of the services. Dr. Primiano graduated from the Université du Québec à Montréal (UQAM) with a Ph.D. degree and a Psy.D. degree in clinical and experimental psychology. She previously worked as a psychology consultant for Veterans Affairs Canada (VAC), where she supported the delivery and coordination of evidence-informed mental health services in the Operational Stress Injury Clinics across Canada.