

Rhonda R. Prowell-Kitter

Chief Financial Officer/Plan Administrator
Public Education Health Trust
Anchorage, Alaska

Ms. Prowell-Kitter is the chief financial officer/plan administrator for the Public Education Health Trust, a plan designed as a self-funded health insurance trust for public education employees in Alaska. She is the plan administrator while also overseeing the accounting operations and directing the investment activity of the health and welfare fund. Prior to this role, Ms. Prowell-Kitter was principal in a private firm providing accounting services and software implementation throughout the state of Alaska. Previously, during her employment with Coopers & Lybrand, Ms. Prowell-Kitter directed the emerging business operations center, assisting small businesses with internal controls, accounting operations, policy development and investment strategies. She has over 30 years of accounting experience in both the public and private sector. Ms. Prowell-Kitter served as board chair for the Anchorage Neighborhood Health Center, the largest primary care medical and dental care facility in Alaska, and served on the executive board of the Alaska Association of Health Underwriters. She received her B.B.A. degree in accounting from the University of Alaska– Anchorage.