

David Race, MBA, CFA

Managing Director and Institutional Portfolio Manager
RBC Global Asset Management Inc. (PH&N Institutional)
Vancouver, British Columbia

---

David Race is a managing director and an institutional portfolio manager at PH&N Institutional, an operating division of RBC Global Asset Management Inc. He is responsible for clients with fixed income and balanced specialty mandates, including pension plans, general insurance accounts and public sector entities. David joined the organization in 2008 from Goldman Sachs in New York, where he had been vice president of structured credit products. Prior to this, he had been a director, structured credit products at IXIS Corporate & Investment Bank in New York and London, having earlier worked as executive director, asset securitization at CIBC World Markets. David started his career in the investment industry in 1994. He is a CFA charterholder, and earned an MBA degree from Ivey Business School, Western University and a bachelor of commerce degree from the University of Alberta.