

Amar Reganti

Managing Director, Broad Markets Investment Products and Strategies

Wellington Management Company, LLP
Boston, Massachusetts

Amar Reganti is a managing director and fixed income strategist at Wellington Management Company. He works closely with Wellington clients in optimizing their fixed income allocations as well as analyzing fixed income market dynamics and trends. Prior to joining Wellington, Reganti was a fixed income and asset allocation strategist at Grantham, Mayo, Van Otterloo. From 2011 to 2015, Reganti served as the deputy director of the Office of Debt Management at the U.S. Treasury Department. Prior to his time in public service, he was a fixed income portfolio manager at UBS Global Asset Management. He has also held roles in derivative solutions and credit analysis at Merrill Lynch and UBS Warburg. He holds an M.B.A. degree from the University of Chicago's Booth School of Business, an M.Sc. degree from the London School of Economics and an undergraduate degree from Vassar College. He authors the Wellington monthly strategy piece Fixed Income Drivers and Observations, and his most recent publications include A COVID-Era Guide to Fixed Income and A Credit Strategy Designed for All Seasons.