

Kevin Reid, CFA

Executive Vice President, Investor Relations and Capital Formation

Fengate Asset Management
Oakville, Ontario

As executive vice president, investor relations and capital formation at Fengate Asset Management, Kevin Reid is focused on client relationships with both existing and prospective investors. He works on infrastructure, real estate, and private equity on behalf of investors. In addition to leading the investor relations team and fundraising efforts, Kevin contributes to key business development activities, providing both analytical support and strategic advice. Prior to his current role, he worked in management consulting at Oliver Wyman and in financial services at TD Bank Group in Toronto. Kevin holds an honours bachelor of commerce degree from Queen's University and is a CFA charterholder.