Steven Richardson, M.A.

Manager
Claim Watch
Windsor, Ontario

Steven Richardson is the manager of Claim Watch. In this position, he oversees the Claim Watch unit, a team focused on the detection and prevention of fraud and abuse for a number of health insurance clients. Richardson brings unique and valuable investigative experience to the benefits fraud prevention industry from his key roles in policing and international affairs. Prior to joining Claim Watch, he spent 25 years with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) in various positions, from uniformed policing to running a major crimes unit. Richardson's work with the RCMP earned him the RCMP long-service medal. In addition to the RCMP, his investigative past also includes work as a war crimes investigator with the Commission for International Justice and Accountability in Turkey, and as the Chief, Special Investigations Unit for the United Nations mission in the Central African Republic. In 2010, Richardson was awarded the Southwest Asia Service medal for his service in Afghanistan as part of the Canadian Civilian Police Contingent. He earned a master of arts degree from Athabasca University and a bachelor of arts degree from McMaster University.