

Jillian Ritter

AVP, Account Executive
Lockton
Hartford, Connecticut

Jillian Ritter is an AVP account executive in employee benefits at Lockton. She serves as a primary service contact for clients, with responsibilities including managing the overall client relationship, strategic planning and financial reporting as well as managing the team of benefit analysts for the employee benefits team in Connecticut. Internally at Lockton, Ritter is the designated wellness champion for the Hartford office within the Northeast Series. She initially joined Lockton servicing the key account client segment and has since transitioned to supporting middle-market accounts within employee benefits. Ritter earned a bachelor of science degree in business management from Bryant University.