

Christian Roberts

Client Portfolio Manager
Aeolus Capital Management Ltd.
Hamilton, Bermuda

Christian Roberts is a client portfolio manager of Aeolus. His primary responsibilities include serving as a technical resource to Aeolus' existing and prospective clientele in interpreting portfolio positioning and risk exposures. As a member of the Business Development and Investor Relations team, Roberts plays an active role in Aeolus' ongoing capital raising efforts. Prior to joining Aeolus in 2019, Roberts held the role of assistant portfolio manager at Securis Investment Partners LLP, a London-based ILS manager. During his time with Securis, his primary responsibilities included catastrophe modeling, transaction structuring, ILW trading, portfolio analytics and portfolio construction. Preceding his time with Securis, Roberts started his career with Guy Carpenter in London, where he served in the role of trainee reinsurance broker. Roberts holds a master of arts degree in mathematics with First Class Honors from the University of Edinburgh. He is an associate of the Chartered Insurance Institute (ACII) and a part-qualified actuary. Immediately prior to joining Aeolus, Roberts was a graduate student at the MIT Sloan School of Management.
