

Shannon Rohan
Chief Strategy Officer
SHARE
Vancouver, British Columbia

Shannon Rohan is the chief strategy officer at SHARE, an award-winning responsible investment organization dedicated to mobilizing investor leadership for a sustainable, inclusive and productive economy. Rohan's professional career has spanned over two decades working in the areas of responsible investment and sustainability, with experience in Canada, South Africa and Latin America. She has spent the last 15 years helping to build SHARE's investor network to include foundations, Indigenous trusts, pensions, universities and faith-based investors representing over $90 billion in assets under management. Rohan advises asset owner boards on responsible investment strategies and oversees strategic projects for SHARE, including the organization's ongoing efforts related to decent work, reconciliation and racial equity. Rohan sits on the board of the First Peoples' Cultural Foundation, an organization dedicated to supporting the vitality of Indigenous languages, arts and cultural heritage in British Columbia.