

Kevin Rorwick

Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer
CAAT Pension Plan
Toronto, Ontario

Kevin Rorwick is a Chartered Professional Accountant (CPA, CA) with more than 25 years of experience in the financial services sector and a strong background in investment operations and risk management. As chief operating officer and chief financial officer of the CAAT Pension Plan, Rorwick has responsibility for the member and employer experience as well as finance, office administration, information technology and communications. He is a member of the Pension Committee of the C.D. Howe Institute and has recently worked with other public pension plans on changes proposed to public sector accounting standards for pension plans. Rorwick holds an honours bachelor of business administration degree from Wilfrid Laurier University.