

Jessica R. Roster, CPA

Partner

WithumSmith+Brown, PC
San Ramon, California

Jessica R. Roster is an audit partner at WithumSmith+Brown, PC, an advisory and accounting firm. With over two decades of experience, Roster works with defined benefit, defined contribution, 401(k), health and welfare, vacation, scholarship and apprentice training funds. She assists charitable labor organizations with audits, reviews, compilations and return preparation while also counseling and mentoring staff. Roster is a current committee member and past co-chair of the CalCPA Women's Leadership Forum and past speaker at the CalCPA Employee Benefits Plan Conference. Her professional memberships include the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans and the California Society of Certified Public Accountants. Roster received a bachelor of science degree in economics with an emphasis in accounting from the University of California, Santa Cruz.