

Lana Rupperecht
Director
Matrix Absences Management
Phoenix, Arizona

Lana Rupperecht is an industry expert in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA). She is a frequent author and presenter on a variety of topics relating to leave of absence and disability and has advised businesses, Fortune 500 companies and government entities in all aspects of employment law for over 17 years. She attended the University of Denver for her undergraduate degree in journalism and public policy, graduating magna cum laude. Rupperecht holds a J.D. degree from the University of Denver Sturm College of Law.