

Julie Stich, CEBS, CEBS Compliant

Vice President, Content
International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans
Brookfield, Wisconsin

Julie Stich serves as vice president of content for the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans. In this role, she oversees the International Foundation educational programs, including online learning courses, webcasts, virtual conferences and in-person educational events. As an employee benefits expert, Julie closely follows emerging employee benefits issues and trends, ensuring that the Foundation's 31,000 members—who represent more than 25 million lives—are informed. She regularly speaks on health care, retirement and other employee benefits topics and has been quoted by numerous media outlets, including The Wall Street Journal, Bloomberg, Forbes, MarketWatch and CNBC. Julie also co-hosts the podcast Talking Benefits. She is involved with the Society of Actuaries Committee on Post-Retirement Needs and Risks. Julie is an associate editor of the Journal of Financial Service Professionals. She is a member of the International Society of Certified Employee Benefit Specialists (ISCEBS), the Employee Benefit Research Institute, the National Institute on Retirement Security and the Pension Research Council. Julie holds the Certified Employee Benefit Specialist (CEBS) professional designation, a master's degree in library and information science, and a bachelor of arts degree in English and history from the University of Wisconsin–Milwaukee.