

David Sworn

Associate
Goldblatt Partners LLP
Toronto, Ontario

David Sworn is an associate at Goldblatt Partners LLP. He works for unions to advance and protect pension and benefit rights in bargaining, grievance arbitration and civil litigation. Sworn recognizes the essential role that health and retirement benefits have played in strengthening the labour movement, building more equitable workplaces and improving the lives of workers. He also represents individual employees in pension and benefit disputes and supports benefit plan trustees on governance and regulatory matters. Prior to joining Goldblatt Partners, Sworn studied law at Osgoode Hall Law School and worked as a student caseworker at Parkdale Community Legal Services, where he represented individual workers in employment standards and human rights disputes.
