

Stephanie Thompson, CWWS

Employee Experience Architect
GM Financial
Fort Worth, Texas

Stephanie Thompson is an Employee Experience Architect with over ten years of experience driving employee engagement and building healthy, balanced workplaces. She is dedicated to supporting cultures of inclusivity in the workplace as well as enhancing the employee experience for diverse employee populations. Thompson began her career in health care at Baylor Scott and White in 2008 and has transitioned into her current role at GM Financial. She also serves as a member of the Texas Diversity Council. Through a combination extensive training and professional experience, she has developed a unique skillset beneficial for effectively identifying best practice solutions through data analytics, developing multiculturally competent programs and implementing strategies that positively impact the workplace culture for employees across the globe.