

Benjamin Tingling

Institutional Portfolio Manager
MFS Investment Management
London, United Kingdom

Benjamin Tingling is an institutional portfolio manager at MFS Investment Management® (MFS®). In this role, he participates in the research process and strategy discussions, assesses portfolio risk, customizes portfolios to client objectives and guidelines, and manages daily cash flows. He also communicates investment policy, strategy and positioning. Tingling joined MFS in 2014 in his current role. He previously worked for Man Group plc for six years, most recently as a derivatives and client onboarding associate. Benjamin earned a bachelor of science degree in economics and finance from Brunel University. He holds the Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst (CAIA) designation and an Investment Management Certificate (IMC).