

Steven P. Tondi

President and Chief Executive Officer
Associated General Contractors of the Quad Cities
Rock Island, Illinois

Steven P. Tondi is president and chief executive officer of the Associated General Contractors of the Quad Cities (AGCQC) in Rock Island, Illinois. Overseeing community, industry and labor relations, he has been promoting AGCQC as the leading expert in the construction industry since May of 1995. Tondi has been involved in negotiating 81 collective bargaining agreements. He has served as a multiemployer management trustee for over 27 years, serving on nine plans, including pension, health and welfare, and apprenticeship. Previously, Tondi worked with the State Attorney General's Office and served as the statewide director of administration. He has been a member of the Quad Cities Chamber of Commerce and the Military Affairs Council. He has also attended the International Foundation's U.S. Employee Benefits conference over 25 times and is a graduate of the Trustees Masters Program. Tondi has a bachelor of arts degree in management from the University of Illinois Springfield. He also earned the Certificate in Association Management from DePaul University and the Certificate in Labor Relations Management from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.