

Ian Toner, CFA
Chief Investment Officer
Verus Investments
Seattle, Washington

Ian Toner is responsible for the overall investment output at Verus, for both discretionary and nondiscretionary clients. He ensures that the investment resources of the firm are applied in the most effective way for each client and that the asset allocation, portfolio construction, manager selection and capital market insights are directed at problems that clients face and are implementable in portfolios. Toner is a member of the Verus management committee. He joined Verus from Russell Investments and has worked for a range of firms in the United Kingdom and the United States. Toner has a degree in law from the University of Oxford in the United Kingdom and is a CFA charterholder (chartered financial analyst). He sits on the finance/audit committee of the Medina Foundation in Seattle, has served on multiple charitable boards, and has experience as an Endowment Committee chair.
