

Karen van Caulil, Ph.D.

President and CEO
Florida Alliance for Healthcare Value
Orlando, Florida

Karen van Caulil, Ph.D., joined the Florida Alliance for Healthcare Value in 2011 as the president and CEO. She leads this nationally recognized business coalition on health representing 90 public and private sector employers, overseeing all activities and operations, including research projects, educational programs, conferences and member engagement. Dr. van Caulil previously served in leadership positions for the University of Central Florida College of Medicine and the Health Council of East Central Florida. A respected leader in her field, Dr. van Caulil represents the Florida Alliance's mission and work locally, regionally and nationally, actively serving on numerous boards, advisory committees and workgroups for organizations such as the National Alliance of Healthcare Purchaser Coalitions, Catalyst for Payment Reform, Florida's Agency for Health Care Administration, the Florida Department of Health and many others. Dr. van Caulil graduated from Duke University with a bachelor of science degree in biology and completion of the "Science, Technology and Human Values" degree program. She received a master of science degree in public health, health policy and administration from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill as well as an interdisciplinary doctorate degree in public affairs from the University of Central Florida. Dr. van Caulil was named "Outstanding Alumni" from the University of Central Florida's College of Health and Public Affairs in 2012. Under her leadership, the Florida Alliance received the Member Leadership Award from the National Alliance of Healthcare Purchaser Coalitions in 2018.