

Thomas Vecchio, Esq.

Chief Counsel, International Markets, Americas
Cigna Corporation
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Thomas Vecchio is chief counsel for Cigna International Health's Americas business. In this role, he provides business-minded legal support focusing on the provision of advice in all functions relevant to the team's operations and expansion, including sales, client management, strategy, product development, conflicts, litigation, contracting, process development and compliance. Vecchio leads a topflight creative and practical team working directly with all levels of the organization to deliver Cigna's promises. Prior to his role in Cigna's international business, Vecchio held several roles in legal supporting the company's pharmacy benefit manager (PBM) and individual and family plan businesses. Before joining Cigna, he was a private practice litigator specializing in health care disputes on behalf of payers. Vecchio is a graduate of the Catholic University Columbus School of Law and received his bachelor of arts degree from The George Washington University. He is admitted to practice in New Jersey, Pennsylvania and New York.
