

Ira Weintraub, M.D.

Chief Medical Officer
WellRithms Inc.
Portland, OR

Ira Weintraub, M.D., chief medical officer for WellRithms, has practiced orthopedic surgery for 38 years. His surgical expertise is in joint replacement, and he has been associated with Dr. Quorum for the last 20 years, gaining insight into health care billing. Besides being the managing partner in his own clinic, he started a surgery center over 15 years ago. Dr. Weintraub's great attraction to WellRithms has been fair and transparent payment to providers along with integrity and the elimination of fraud in medical billing. Decades of experience on the provider side, as well as chairing and working with numerous hospital and surgery center associations, has given him a unique and deep understanding of the medical treatments and the complexity of the business of health care. Dr. Weintraub also brings additional specialty-specific expertise to WellRithms, having developed close relationships with a vast network of providers.
