

David S. White, CEBS

Vice President

Hub International Limited

Vancouver, British Columbia

David is a Vice President in HUB's Employee Benefits – National Accounts practice. He has been with the firm for over twenty years, during which time he has worked on a diverse range of single and multi-employer clients. David provides benefits consulting services to a variety of public and private sector clients, and has worked with plan sponsors at all levels to review and evaluate plan design, conduct carrier searches, and manage the ongoing financial sustainability of group benefit programs.

David is the lead benefits consultant for a number of multi-employer benefit plans, affiliated pension plans, and also works with several multi-employer association clients. David has a wide range of experience working with all kinds of multi-employer benefit plans and provides services ranging from technical consulting work to secretariat and general management.

David received an Honours Bachelor of Commerce degree from McMaster University and earned his designation as a Certified Employee Benefit Specialist in 2011. He served as President of the British Columbia Chapter of the International Society of Certified Employee Benefit Specialists in 2013.
