

Corey J. Wirth, CEBS
Executive Director
IBEW-NECA Service Center, Inc.
St. Louis, Missouri

Corey J. Wirth is the executive director of the IBEW–NECA Service Center. He directs all phases of the administration of 18 Taft-Hartley benefit funds representing DC pension, salary deferral 401(k), health and welfare, vacation, holiday, supplemental unemployment, industry advancement and educational trust funds. Wirth is past president of the Midwest Labor Health Coalition and is past secretary of the St. Louis Chapter, International Society of Certified Employee Benefit Specialists. He has served as a voting member of the International Foundation Board of Directors, past Chair of the Administrators Committee and currently serves on the CEBS committee. Wirth attended the University of Central Missouri, where he received his B.S. degree in business administration and a minor in industrial psychology.