

Paul Wroblewski, ASA, FCA, MAAA

Consulting Actuary
First Actuarial Consulting, Inc. (FACT)
New York, New York

Mr. Wroblewski is a partner at actuarial consulting firm FACT. As a seasoned health and welfare (H&W) benefits actuary and underwriter, he has regularly advised companies/plan sponsors throughout his career on issues related to the design, pricing and financing of H&W benefit plans. Mr. Wroblewski has over 30 years of experience working with H&W benefit plans, the first six years of which were in MetLife's group benefits department as an actuarial student and underwriter for all lines of coverage. Upon moving to a consultant role, he first joined Coopers & Lybrand (now PwC) and then spent the next 23 years at EY (Ernst & Young). As a consultant, Mr. Wroblewski has assisted many types of clients, ranging in size from ten employees to tens of thousands, with analyzing and managing their H&W benefit programs from both a human resources and a finance/operations perspective, especially in light of the Affordable Care Act. In addition to providing the standard array of H&W advisory and actuarial valuation services, he has two decades of experience consulting under many different types of merger and acquisition transactions in which he reviewed and analyzed the H&W benefit plans of targeted entities during the due diligence process. This includes current state plan design/cost assessments, uncovering potential benefit-related liabilities, and identifying post-deal transition and/or integration issues. Mr. Wroblewski received his B.S. degree in computer science/mathematics from Binghamton University. He is an associate of the Society of Actuaries in addition to being a fellow of the Conference of Consulting Actuaries and a member of the American Academy of Actuaries.
