

Gary Yee, MTMS, ICD.D

National Representative
Canadian Union of Public Employees (CUPE)
Burnaby, British Columbia

Gary Yee is a national representative for the Canadian Union of Public Employees (CUPE) in their Burnaby, British Columbia office. He is the pension and airline coordinator in British Columbia. Yee has over 25 years of experience in labour relations and contract administration. In his role as the CUPE pension coordinator, he takes the lead on pension issues in British Columbia. Yee has worked with defined benefit, defined contribution and hybrid pension plans. He is a representative for CUPE BC on the Municipal Employees Pensions Committee (Plan Member Partner to Municipal Pension Plan), chair of the Municipal Employee Pension Advisory Committee and the staff advisor to the CUPE BC Pension Committee. Yee is currently vice chair of the BC Municipal Pension Plan, the largest pension plan in British Columbia and the sixth largest in Canada. This board of trustees has 32 members consisting of both primary and alternate trustees. He also has other board roles. Yee is a trustee on the Multi-Sector Pension Plan, a target benefit plan in Ontario. He is also the independent board chair for the Grande Prairie Firefighters Supplemental Pension Plan in Alberta. Yee is a director on the BC Pension Corporation Board, which is a crown corporation responsible for pension plan administration of the Public Pension Funds in British Columbia. He earned his bachelor of science degree in applied sciences from Simon Fraser University, holds the Institute of Corporate Directors designation and earned his Master of Trust Management Standards (MTMS) credential through the International Foundation in 2019.