

Amanda Zoeller Newman, CEBS, SPHR

Client Service Leader
Gallagher Benefit Services, Inc.
New York City, New York

Amanda Zoeller Newman is a client service leader for the NY/NJ metro branch of Gallagher Benefit Services, Inc., with extensive experience and knowledge in the employee benefits field. Amanda manages a team of consultants as well as a comprehensive book of business. Amanda possesses a broad range of subject matter expertise across all areas of medical, dental and ancillary benefit administration with numerous carriers and plan designs. Prior to joining Gallagher in 2017, Amanda worked as a lead consultant and producer for a large insurance agency in Florida. Amanda holds the Certified Employee Benefit Specialist® and Senior Professional in Human Resources designations. She is currently the vice president of the ISCEBS NY Metro Chapter. She is also very involved with Toastmasters, a leadership and public speaking organization. Amanda is a resident of Long Island City in Queens, New York City, and she is currently licensed to sell and manage life and health insurance products in multiple states.