

Patrick Baillie, Ph.D., LL.B.

Psychologist and Lawyer
Alberta Health Services
Calgary, Alberta

Dr. Baillie is a psychologist and a lawyer. Since completing his psychology doctoral degree in Virginia in 1992, he has worked in a forensic outpatient program in Calgary, Alberta. In 2013, Dr. Baillie joined the Alberta Provincial Court for a brief stint as legal counsel. For the past 20 years, he has also been a consulting psychologist with the Calgary Police Service. In 2007, Dr. Baillie was named to the Mental Health and the Law Advisory Committee of the Mental Health Commission of Canada, later becoming chair of that committee. He appears frequently before the courts, usually as an expert witness and only occasionally as an accused.