

Timothy D. Conroy, CPS, MSLT

Behavioral Health Consultant
TCon Consulting
St. Louis, Missouri

Mr. Conroy is a behavioral health consultant with TCon Consulting. He also works independently with multiple organizations, including Rebound911, American Foundation for Suicide Prevention (AFSP), St. Louis Empowerment Center, several local schools and multiple law enforcement agencies. In addition, Mr. Conroy is a consultant for the State Mental Health Court in St. Louis County and is consulting on the opening of a new first responder treatment program at Sana Lake Recovery Center in Dittmer, Missouri. He is an emergency response to opioid overdose (Narcan) trainer and outreaches to populations that are often overlooked. Mr. Conroy is passionate about suicide prevention and intervention, is a member of the "Suicide: the Ripple Effect" team and works toward the Zero Suicide Initiative. He is an associate member with the American Association of Suicidology a certified peer specialist and trainer for the Missouri Credentialing Board, and he serves as the lived experience representative on the Missouri State Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) Council and Working Committee.