

Michael Goldberger

Co-Founder and Partner
MIDIOR Consulting
Cambridge, Massachusetts

Mr. Goldberger is a co-founder and partner at MIDIOR Consulting where he oversees project delivery, ensuring that work meets the firm's standards for smart design, innovation, relevance and quality. With over 25 years of experience as a management consultant, entrepreneur, senior executive and engineer, he is called upon whenever companies have extremely complex product problems or technical challenges. Mr. Goldberger is a leading figure in the development and commercialization of emerging technologies and IT platforms, helping clients improve accuracy and relevance in their product development process and IT programs. His unique ability to match new concepts and breakthrough technologies with real-world products and services has resulted in multiple patent applications and commercially successful products. Mr. Goldberger's non-profit passions focus on MIT's K-12 initiative and the MIT Club of Boston, where he is an officer and past president.