Ms. Gomez is a partner with Cohen, Weiss and Simon LLP. She specializes in employee benefits law, representing boards of trustees of many multiemployer pension and welfare plans and training programs, as well as a federal employee health benefit plan, plans covering city employees and single employer staff plans. Ms. Gomez is the union co-chair of the Senior Board of Editors for the American Bar Association (ABA)/Bloomberg BNA Employee Benefits Law treatise. She also currently serves as union co-chair for the ABA Labor and Employment Section’s Leadership Development Program. Ms. Gomez was inducted as a fellow of the American College of Employee Benefits Counsel, Inc., based on over 20 years of experience and significant contributions to the employee benefits field. She is also a member of the advisory board of the Peggy Browning Fund, a nonprofit organization that promotes opportunities for law students to promote workers’ rights. Ms. Gomez is the former union co-chair of the ABA Labor and Employment Law (L&E) Section Committee on Employee Benefits and also previously served as co-chair of its Subcommittee on Jointly Administered Plans and its Subcommittee on Civil Procedure, as well as the union co-chair of the section’s FLASH newsletter.