

Neil J. Gregorio, Esq.

Shareholder
Tucker Arensberg, P.C.
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

Mr. Gregorio has successfully handled hundreds of withdrawal liability cases across the country and regularly collects millions of dollars for his multiemployer pension fund clients. His withdrawal liability practice focuses on controlled group liability, the building and construction industry exemption, bankruptcy claims, asset and stock sales as well as successor and alter ego liability. Mr. Gregorio is currently before the Third Circuit Court of Appeals defending a $78 million arbitration award that he obtained in an evade or avoid case. Although his withdrawal liability claims range greatly in size, his largest claim is currently for $205 million against a Fortune 100 company. His national pension fund clients include the Boilermaker-Blacksmith National Pension Trust (Kansas City, Kansas) and the Steelworkers Pension Trust (Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania) whose collective assets are worth over $11 billion. Some of his regional pension fund clients include the Alaska Plumbing and Pipefitting Industry Pension Fund (Fairbanks, Alaska), the Greater Pennsylvania Carpenters' Pension Fund (Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania), the Insulators Local 53 Pension Fund (New Orleans, Louisiana) and the Laborers' District Council of Western Pennsylvania Pension Fund (Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania). Mr. Gregorio also handles general ERISA litigation and bankruptcy matters for other multiemployer trust funds sponsored by the Bricklayers, Carpenters, Iron Workers, Operating Engineers, Painters, Plumbers and Steamfitters. Prior to earning his law degree from the University of Pittsburgh, where he was an editor of the Law Review, Mr. Gregorio worked for U.S. Steel, Allegheny Ludlum and CBS Infinity Broadcasting. He holds a bachelor's degree from Duquesne University.
