

Kjell A. Johnson, Pharm.D.

Vice President of Specialty Strategy and Client Solutions
CVS Health
Orlando, Florida

Mr. Johnson is vice president of specialty strategy and client solutions at CVS Health. In this role, he is dedicated to understanding the needs of specialty clients, working with them to conceptualize and develop products that solve these needs and their challenges. Prior to joining CVS Health, Mr. Johnson was vice president of business development for Integra Connect, where he developed data-driven, value-based programs to optimize quality and cost of specialty care in payor networks. He previously led Global Oncology for IMS Health, was senior vice president of strategy and business development at Magellan Health, was a co-founder of ICORE Healthcare and was a senior manager at Deloitte Consulting. Mr. Johnson is a fellow of the American College of Clinical Pharmacy and the Academy of Managed Care Pharmacy, is board certified in pharmacotherapy and was the founder and publisher of Managed Care Oncology. He completed a research fellowship and earned his Pharm.D. degree at the University of Minnesota.