

Mingee Kim, MHSA, CPDM, CLMS

Senior Vice President, National Practice Leader
Workforce Absence Management, Risk Services Division
HUB International
Chicago, Illinois

Ms. Kim serves as the national practice leader for HUB International's workforce absence management. She has years of experience in integrated absence management and process improvement. Ms. Kim holds a bachelor of science degree in molecular and cellular biology and communications from the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign and a master's of health service administration degree in health management and policy from the University of Michigan's School of Public Health. has worked with a wide range of customers both in size and industry to address the linkage between individual health, program/process design and productivity. Ms. Kim develops and implements evidence-based, data-driven strategic solutions to improve employee experience and contain costs. She is certified in professional disability management (CPDM) and is a certified leave management specialist (CLMS). Ms. Kim holds a bachelor of science degree in molecular and cellular biology and communications from the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign and a master's of health service administration degree in health management and policy from the University of Michigan's School of Public Health.