

Dawn M. Lichtner, CEBS

Relationship Executive
The Vanguard Group
Valley Forge, Pennsylvania

Ms. Lichtner is a relationship executive in the client services division of the Vanguard Group in Valley Forge, Pennsylvania. With over 25 years of experience helping clients meet their benefit and business objectives through their retirement plans, she manages the accounts of some of Vanguard's largest clients. Ms. Lichtner currently leads the delivery of all of Vanguard's services to her clients and helps them develop short- and long-term strategies that will enhance their retirement programs. Previously, she worked for Deloitte & Touche and Aon Consulting, where she provided administration and consulting services for defined benefit and defined contribution plans. Ms. Lichtner has worked with Fortune 500, nonprofit and public entity clients. She is a frequent speaker and has held leadership positions in many benefit forums. Ms. Lichtner holds a B.S. degree from Villanova University and an M.B.A. degree from St. Joseph's University and holds the certified employee benefit specialist designation from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania and the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans.