

Kelly McClung

Chief Operating Officer
Prowse Chowne LLP
Edmonton, Alberta

Kelly McClung is the chief operating officer for Prowse Chowne LLP. She leads all strategic efforts related to the firm's operations, advancement and business growth, working in collaboration with the Prowse Chowne partnership and team. McClung has dedicated her career to helping small, mid-sized and multi-location companies exceed their business objectives. A tactical and entrepreneurial senior executive, she boasts a proven track record for successfully leading and executing local and national business development, marketing, operational and expansion strategies. Focused on sustainability and improvement, McClung boasts a positive reputation for leading people and building capacity. Her success is grounded in her ability to fluidly maneuver in any situation, consistently creating meaningful collaborations and solid outcomes that result in customer service excellence.