Mr. Moulder has been practicing in the Affordable Care Act area since its inception. He has written and spoken extensively on a variety of ACA topics with a particular focus on strategy, plan design and compliance. Mr. Moulder has worked with law firms, Fortune 500 companies, Big 4 accounting firms, and startups. His diverse experience allows him to easily relate to the clients he serves in his daily practice. Mr. Moulder's close personal and business relationships to employers with low wage earners has provided him with unique insights into the issues that the Affordable Care Act presents to these employers, including franchisees and multistate employers. In addition to his legal practice, he serves as the chief legal officer of Accord Systems, LLC, a technology firm that provides ACA reporting services (Forms 1094-C and 1095-C) for employers. Mr. Moulder graduated with distinction from Georgetown University Law Center where he received his LL.M. degree in taxation with a certificate in employee benefits. He received his J.D. degree from St. Louis University School of Law and was awarded numerous academic honors for his coursework, particularly in the field of tax. Mr. Moulder is an alum of the University of Kansas, where he graduated with distinction from the business school. He is licensed to practice law in California, Illinois and Missouri.
