Dr. Janis Sarra
Professor of Law
University of British Columbia
Vancouver, British Columbia

Dr. Sarra is a professor of law at the Peter A. Allard School of Law at the University of British Columbia. Her research and teaching interests are in the areas of corporate finance, climate finance and governance, securities law and banking law. Dr. Sarra has published twelve books and more than one hundred articles in the corporate and commercial fields. Her recent publications include: “Fiduciary Obligations in Business and Investment: Implications of Climate Change,” 2018 (CCLI, Oxford); “Time to Act, Response to questions posed by the Expert Panel on Sustainable Finance on Fiduciary Obligation and Effective Climate-related Financial Disclosures,” co-authored with C. Williams, 2019. Dr. Sarra served as a UBC Presidential Distinguished Professor from 2014-2019. The UBC Presidential Distinguished Professor title is awarded to a professor who has made outstanding contributions as a scholar and academic leader.