Ms. Scheeler began her career with the Teamsters Health & Welfare and Pension Funds of Philadelphia and Vicinity in the pension funds’ processing department. In time she rose to fill the position of assistant pension manager, and later pension manager. Next, Ms. Scheeler assumed the role of member services manager coordinating member service efforts for both the pension and health & welfare funds, eventually being promoted to director of operations. Most recently, she became the funds executive director/administrator. Keeping her finger on the pulse of innovation when it comes to health plan design, Ms. Scheeler constantly seeks out programs and services that go above and beyond and is committed to providing and maintaining quality benefits in a cost-efficient manner.
